9 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 MARCUS JAMES HALL,
14
15 Defendant.

Case No. CR18-131-RAJ

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO REOPEN DETENTION DECISION

16 The Court conducted a hearing on defendant's motion to reopen the detention decision
17 the grounds. Dkt. 357. Defendant has a lengthy criminal history that includes both felony and 18 misdemeanor convictions. His history indicates he has serious substance abuse problems as 19 shown by his participation in the state drug sentencing alternative program, DOSA. At the 20 hearing, the defense also indicated that defendant has mental health problems. While on state
21 DOSA supervision, defendant allegedly committed the crimes that he is indicted for. The fact
22 defendant has been indicted for felony charges while on supervision cuts against release.

23 When defendant was arrested, he had at least three outstanding warrants for his arrest.
Numerous other warrants for defendant's arrest have been issued over the course of his lengthy criminal history. Defendant's failure to make court appearances indicates he is flight risk.

1 For the foregoing reasons, the Court DENIES defendant's motion to reopen the detention
2 decision. Dkt. 357. The Clerk shall provide a copy of this order to the parties and to the assigned
3 District Judge.
